

Pregnancy Test Training Questionnaire

After viewing the Invitech pregnancy test training presentation, please complete this questionnaire and return it to your point of care co-ordinator. Provided you achieve a satisfactory score, you will be issued with a Pregnancy Test Training Certificate.

The Science

During a normal pregnancy, when do hCG levels peak?

Answer:

What are the potential problems with using a very sensitive pregnancy test?

Answer:

Briefly explain how the test works.

Answer:

The Sample

What type of sample should be used?

Answer

What type of container should be used for the sample?

Answer

How to Use the Test

How many drops of urine should be added to Invitech's pregnancy test cassette?

Answer:

How long should Invitech's pregnancy test dip stick be held in the urine sample?

Answer:

Can urine samples be tested straight from the fridge?

Answer:

What is the reading time for the test?

Answer:

What should you do if the control line fails to appear?

Answer:

How would you interpret a test result where the line in the Test zone is weaker than the line in the Control zone?

Answer:

Where can the expiry date and lot number be found on Invitech's pregnancy test kits?

Answer:

How should Invitech's pregnancy test kits be stored?

Answer:

Who is responsible for the test result?

Answer:

Quality Assurance

What is NEQAS?

Answer:

Who is your point of care co-ordinator or point of contact for pregnancy tests?

Answer:

What additional information should you record with the patient's pregnancy test result?

Answer:

List three reasons for a false positive result

Answer:

List three reasons for a false negative result

Answer:

Name:

Ward/Department:

Date: